Things to Consider:

Senior Walk - On May 23, 2018, the graduating seniors will have the opportunity to participate in the Senior Walk Celebration. They will be dressed in full graduation attire including their cap, gown, and cords or medals. They should be at Perquimans Central School between 11:30 - 11:45 for a brief walk through the hallways and cafeteria. This is a special time for the seniors to thank their past teachers and administrators for helping them reach this milestone. This is also an exciting time for us celebrate their success and to talk about graduation, college and careers with our Turtles! Please consider making posters, cards, or special treats to give to the seniors as we commemorate their great accomplishments!

Author Visit – There will be a FREE upcoming book signing and family workshop with Kelly Starling Lyons, author of Ellen's Brooms, Teacakes for Tosh and other stories. The event is sponsored by the Perquimans Arts League and will be held at the Perquimans County Library on Tuesday, May 22 at 5:30 pm.
